VALUE - LOVE

19th October 2017

Half Term

Where has this half term gone? I can't believe that I have been already been at school for half a term – time goes by so fast. As they say, 'time flies when you're having fun!' So, credit must go to the staff, children and families of St Giles Academy that make it the wonderful place to work that it is. We have done lots of exciting things in this first half term and we have more exciting things planned for the build up to Christmas.

Have a lovely half term break!

Mr Grace

Headteacher's Award

As it is the last week of term, the Headteacher Award will be replaced by the Termly Value Award. This term's value has been love!

Parents' Evening Attendance

Thank you all for joining us this week for parents' evening - if you are yet to meet with your child's teacher please contact the office to make an appointment.

Turn back the Clocks!

As winter approaches the nights draw in, but most importantly daylight saving time means you'll be getting an extra hour in bed. The UK reverts to GMT at 2am on Sunday, October 29. So remember to turn back your clock!

'The School Gates'

With the work increasing on the Prince of Wales site, the amount of heavy traffic has increased. Please can we take extra care and show more patience with this increase to an already busy road. I have been made aware that the few are spoiling it for the many and venting their frustration on the school's crossing patrol. This is unacceptable as they are just trying to keep our children safe in already difficult circumstances. Also the office has received some complaints about pupils having to walk through smoke when entering school. Could we please be courteous to our pupils when they are entering and leaving school. Again, thank you for your support.
