VALUE – CO-OPERATION

24th November 2017

Brrrrr!!!! Winter's finally here!

This time next week will be the first day of Advent. After quite a mild Autumn, we will also see the start of a cold spell, with temperatures not getting much above freezing.

Can you please make sure we all get wrapped up in our warm coats and remember our hats and scarves – I know I will! Can we please remember that gingham dresses are only for the warm weather too.

Have a great weekend!

Children in Need Grand Total

With the help of Greggs the total amount we raised last week was - £564! Well done everyone!

Christmas Fair Reminder

6th December at 1:30pm

Mrs. Brown is still seeking donations and help for the afternoon. Please let her know if you can assist.

Headteacher's Award

Jungle – Harlie C

For her fantastic attitude to learning

Forest – Emily S

For practising her letter formation at home.

Sycamores - Cole H

For amazing behaviour, being caring towards others and working hard in all subjects!

Pines - Jacob L

For great enthusiasm, sharing innovative ideas and showing confident performing skills during our poetry workshop at the library this week.

Hollies - Harvey R

For writing excellent instructions including imperative verbs and brilliant adverbs.

Willows – Alex C

For persevering, and succeeding, when multiplying decimal numbers by 10.

Hawthorns – Stefan R

For always being polite, holding doors for visitors and setting an example with his amazing manners. Well done Stefan!

Maples - Kara H

For facing a problem during a literacy lesson. Kara dug in deep for her perseverance and overcame a challenge by showing a more mature attitude :)

Palms – Vienna L

For a plethora of reasons: she always tries her best in every piece of work; she is kind and considerate to those around her and her work is always presented to an extremely high standard.

Oaks - Kade R

Kade is a valued member of our class and is a model student of St Giles. He works hard across all subjects, enjoys a challenge and is a great friend to all. He has made great progress already, keep it up Kade!
